

Claude Code Setup -- @techxcoders

1. Search “Claude Code” — Open your browser and search for Claude Code.
2. Download Claude Code — Download and install Claude Code from the official source.
3. Login with Gmail — Open Claude Code and sign in with your Gmail account.
4. Open Troubleshooting — Go to Help → Troubleshooting.
5. Enable Developer Mode — Turn on the “Enable Developer Mode” option.
6. Open Developer — After enabling it, open the new Developer section.
7. Configure Third Party Inference — Click “Configure Third Party Inference.”
8. Select Static API Key — Choose “Static API Key” as the authentication method.
9. Enter Base URL — Enter this Base URL: <https://agentrouter.org/>
10. Open Agent Router — Visit <https://agentrouter.org/> and open the Agent Router service.
11. Sign in with GitHub — Click Sign In and choose “Continue with GitHub.”

- 12. Open API Token — After login, go to the “API Token” section.
- 13. Create a Token — Click “Create Token” and give the token any name.
- 14. Enable Unlimited Quota — Turn on “Unlimited Quota” if this option is available to you.
- 15. Copy API Token — Create the token and copy the generated API token.
- 16. Return to Claude Code — Go back to the Third Party Inference settings in Claude Code.
- 17. Enter API Key — Paste the copied Agent Router token into the API Key field.
- 18. Set Bearer Authentication — Set “Gateway Auth Scheme” to “Bearer.”
- 19. Apply Changes — Click “Apply Changes” to save the configuration.
- 20. Restart Claude Code — Claude Code will restart to apply the new settings.
- 21. Check Models & Effort — After restarting, check the available models and set the effort level as needed.